

Site update

On Sunday, it was announced that this new site is already full of audio/articles/pictures and many other resources. But, as you can see, there is still much to do before we are at that point. I hope to get a good start on it this week and gradually build this site up to a resource center you'll want to visit very often.

In the meantime, if you haven't done so already, please register yourself and, after doing so, click the "Add my testimony" link under the user menu and tell us how you came to know the Lord. It'll be very encouraging and interesting to see how God worked in each of our lives.

Thanks!
Mike
